Dear Parents,

Remembrance Day
Today Emily, Holleebee and Jaylah attended the Remembrance Day ceremony at the South Grafton Cenotaph on behalf of our school. After laying the wreath for our school, Holleebee, Jaylah and Emily read In Flanders Field at the ceremony and did a great job. Well done!

School Swimming and Water Safety
The School Swimming and Safety lessons commence on Monday for enrolled students and run for two weeks. Don’t forget to bring along your towel and swimmers each day for this great opportunity.
Jacaranda Float
Thank you to everyone who participated in the float procession on Saturday. We appreciate your assistance and enjoyed the ride! Thanks to Deegan, Jack, Pat, Charni, Jaylah, James C, Ashton, Riley N, Kieran, Liam, Hayley, Chloe, Jess, Georgia, Lockie, Jayda, Amber, Brenden, Kirsten, Tamsyn, Savannah, Donnie, Liela, Riley C and Monique R. All these students will receive a positive slip towards Teacher, Bronze, Silver and Gold Awards. A big thank you also to those who came early to help decorate the float. Thanks to Riley N’s family, Deegan’s family and Kieran’s family for their time and effort!

School Sign
We have received the final handover and training for our new school sign. Rather than a static display of text, we are able to have a number of messages played one after the other in a loop. This sign is now aimed towards the road and car park end of the school to allow greater visibility and improved communication with families. As we upgrade our skills, we can also add images to promote school events and student achievement.

On Thursday 19th November K/1 will be enjoying their session cooking. Mrs Conyard has sent out a separate note with more details. If any K/1 parents are able to assist with cooking groups, please contact Mrs Conyard or Mrs Simpson to let us know please.
